Weekly Reflection – June 11th

God's Tapestry

Trials and tribulation in this life, is mentioned to us by Jesus Christ,
Bringing to us pain in many ways, as we live out these earthly days.
Reasons for many we don't know; purpose in Glory God will show,
How our trials were used by God, upon the temporal paths we trod.

For all of our lives is a tapestry, weaved in Glory where all will see,
But from this darkened underside, from all of our eyes it does hide.
We just see the darker threads, weaving throughout our life instead.
And through all the pain and sorrow, we look to a brighter tomorrow.

Through the sometimes dark fray, God's Mercies are new each day,
And we have assurance in The Lord; by who our trial is not ignored.
For Christ suffered, like you and I, but to the point where He did die.
Christ died for us, there's no denial, and God can help us in our trial.

Though Christ died for you and me, He reigns in Heaven for Eternity.
This world's not at all like the one, being prepared for us by The Son.
When Christ's Glory is revealed, all believers will be perfectly healed,
Totally free of our besetting sin, with a perfect heart when we enter in.

Every eye, now above will see, The Lord's Glorious Eternal Tapestry,
Looking down the corridor of time, we'll now see life with God's mind.
We'll see how our lives were weaved, with others who also believed,
When we see all Christ has done, through the Tapestry of God's Son.
